

Bio Martin Munte, Master of Economics and Business Administration

Martin Munte studied commercial sciences at the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration with a focus on organization and international marketing. After his graduation he started in the pharmaceutical industry in Sales at Zeneca. This was followed by extensive roles in Sales & Marketing with multiple successful product launches, Market Access, Pricing, Business Development and Regulatory Affairs at AstraZeneca and Roche. In 2009 he moved to Amgen and became General Manager at Amgen in Austria, Turkey and Slovakia for 10 years and 3 years the President of the Austrian pharmaceutical association PHARMIG. In 2019 he relocated to Switzerland to assume the leadership of all European External Engagement activities for Amgen. In July 2022 he joined Vaccentis AG as CEO of the biotechnology company, based in Zurich.

